

19/05/2015

The works for the Wind Park project in Trikorfa, Fokida, Greece have been completed.

The works for the Wind Park project in Trikorfa, Fokida, Greece have been completed. The scope of ELEMKA included the design and construction of all Civil Works. The works included the issuance of the relevant permits, excavation and backfilling works, road construction works, the construction of the foundations of seven Vestas V-90 wind turbines and the construction of the mechanical equipment building. ELEMKA is already working on two new wind projects in Serres, Greece.